Shaw Park, Clayton's oldest and largest park, is home to the Aquatic Center, Ice Rink and Tennis Center, as well as facilities for volleyball, softball, and baseball. In addition, with its picnic pads, pavilion, walking paths, public art, sensory garden, and inclusive playground, Shaw Park is perfect for any occasion and any season.

Step back in time and visit Hanley Park, home of Martin Franklin Hanley, built in 1855. A great place to visit whether you are touring the home or just enjoying this pleasant neighborhood park!

A friendly space with an updated feel, Wydown Park is the perfect place to chat over a cup of coffee.

A charming pocket park in a quiet neighborhood setting, Clayshire Park is a great place to meet up with your neighbor.

Oak Knoll Park is a multifaceted environment that is home to acres of mature trees, beautiful gardens, a playground, a picturesque pond with fountain, wide walking paths and two stone mansions.

Set just a short distance from the Galleria, Whitburn Park provides a pleasant green space for calm and relaxation.

DeMun Park, with its two playgrounds and multiple benches, provides a great place to bring children to play while you relax in the shade.

Anderson Park is Clayton's newest park and is home to the Clayton Dog park. The park is the perfect place to connect with neighbors and four legged friends.

Located on the grounds of Concordia Seminary, Concordia Park provides its visitors with plenty of open space in a very natural, serene setting.

Located on the site of the former Taylor School, Taylor Park has an enjoyable playground as well as enough space to run around.

Nestled between two residences, Henry Wright Park provides a cozy and tranquil atmosphere. The flowering shrubs and bright flowers make this intimate park reminiscent of a small English garden.
